REFERENCE: ROMA-13555, 14 April 1955

ACTION REQUIRED: None; for your information

ARCAPELIN/1 reported he had several contacts during April and May 1958 with Col. Heinz SCHWALSCHLAGER (described per reference as UFGWING's principal agent for CACT activities) when SCHWALSCHLAGER passed ARCAPELIN/1 the following items for his digest and criticism, copies of which are forwarded to Headquarters:

a. Prozessnachrichten 1 bis 15 Februar 1958, Nr. 19, Betr. Bundesrepublik, Tschechoslowakei, Niederlande, Belgien, Polen, USA. The colonel told ARCAPELIN/1 that he has been operating this press service for the benefit of various overt Bonn offices (sic).

b. ARCAPELIN/1 Report #13-58-74, dated 5 May 1958, regarding Joachim Joosten's new book, entitled, CIA. The colonel said UFGWING asked him to write a critique of this book which he did and passed to ARCAPELIN/1 for his criticism. The Liaison Division felt it advisable to pass this report to Headquarters which appears to "have considerable curiosity" as to how the book was being received.
